Nagano Nichidai's - IB Symposium

On November 13, we held our second IB Symposium. This symposium was attended by parents, local community members, and current university students of Tsuru University. Thank you very much for your participation. We, the faculty and staff, feel that we learned a lot throughout the day. It was also a time when we were able to make new plans for the future. The next symposium is scheduled for February 19. We will post the details of the symposium on our website shortly. We look forward to your participation!
